ABOUT ME

Motivated to start, committed to develop and dedicated to completion. I am a balanced individual with a professional and unpretentious work ethic. By taking subjects out of their context and using novel juxtapositions, I want my work to challenge definitions and propose new ways of thinking.

My collection was in the Gala Award show at Graduate Fashion Week 2015, gained a lot of positive press including an article in The Times and was shown at The Houses of Parliament as part of an industry showcase event.

Full clean UK driving license and own car.
